RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 24

Representative Morrison introduced House Concurrent Resolution 24:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Riverton Parke High School Academic Spell Bowl Team.

Whereas, The Panthers from Riverton Parke High School won the Indiana Academic Spell Bowl State Championship on November 10, 2018, at Purdue University;

Whereas, This achievement marks the first time that Riverton Parke has earned the state title;

Whereas, The Panthers overcame a steep disadvantage in competing with one less team member than their competitors which resulted in a nine point deficit at the start of the championship;

Whereas, The Panthers rallied, beating their previous area competition score of 55 with a score of 59;

Whereas, Team captain T.J. Rutan led the team at the state competition with a perfect score of 9, and was followed closely by teammates David LeClercq, Macy Johnson, Caitlin Woods, and Lindsey Peterson, who each had near-perfect scores of 8; and

Whereas, The members of the 2018 Academic Spell Bowl State Championship team were: Britany App, Emilee Hartzler, Macy Johnson, David LeClercq, Kirby Martin, Addie Moeller, Lindsey Peterson, T.J. Rutan, Mackenzie Schermann, and Caitlin Woods: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Riverton Parke High School Academic Spell Bowl team on its state championship win.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit copies of this resolution to Riverton Parke High School for distribution to its 2018 Academic Spell Bowl team members.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Boots.

House Resolution 26

Representatives DeLaney, Dvorak, Pierce and Errington introduced House Resolution 26:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION calling for an investigation into whether grounds exist for the impeachment of Attorney General Curtis Hill.

Whereas, Attorney General Curtis Hill was elected Attorney General for the State of Indiana on November 8, 2016, and assumed the office of Attorney General of the State of Indiana on January 9, 2017;

Whereas, Article 6, Section 7 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana and Indiana Code section 5-8-1-2 provides that the Attorney General and other officers of the state may be impeached and potentially removed from office for crime, incapacity, or negligence, upon the adoption of articles of impeachment by this body, and upon trial by the Senate, acting as a court of impeachment;

Whereas, On March 15, 2018, Attorney General Curtis Hill is alleged to have committed acts of sexual misconduct against a female legislator and multiple female legislative staff members, which, if true, could constitute grounds for impeachment under the laws of the state of Indiana; and

Whereas, Given the seriousness of the allegations against Attorney General Curtis Hill and the gravity of the office he holds, this body should address whether Attorney General Curtis Hill can fulfill the duties of the office of Attorney General: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Speaker of the House is urged to assign to the House Committee on Judiciary the task of conducting a comprehensive investigation relating to alleged misconduct by Attorney General Curtis Hill, and submit its findings and recommendations to the House of Representatives, including whether sufficient grounds exist for the House of Representatives to exercise its power to impeach Attorney General Curtis Hill, pursuant to Article 6, Section 7 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the Speaker of the House is urged to refer this resolution to the House Committee on Judiciary, with instructions to organize, adopt rules and procedures, and appoint special counsel and such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the committee's responsibilities, and submit to the House of Representatives its findings and recommendations, including, if warranted, articles of impeachment against Attorney General Curtis Hill.

SECTION 3. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Governor Eric Holcomb, Attorney General Curtis Hill, and Secretary of the Senate Jennifer Mertz.

The resolution was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 9

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 9, sponsored by Representative Heaton:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the Bicentennial of Owen County, Indiana.

Whereas, On January 1, 1819, the Indiana General Assembly admitted Owen County as the State's 31st county;

Whereas, Owen County was named in honor of Colonel Abraham Owen, who fought and lost his life at the Battle of Tippecanoe in November, 1811;

Whereas, John Dunn, one of the county's first settlers, built the log cabin where Owen County held its first court proceedings on March 1, 1819;

Whereas, In 1820, the Town of Spencer was established as the Owen County seat;

Whereas, The Owen County Courthouse, located in Spencer, went through a number of iterations including the original temporary log structure in 1820, a brick building in 1825, and the current limestone courthouse in 1911;

Whereas, Owen County consists of thirteen townships with a population of over 21,000 people;

Whereas, Owen County is home to McCormick's Creek, Indiana's first State Park;

Whereas, Owen County will celebrate its bicentennial on January 1, 2019;

Whereas, Owen County will celebrate its bicentennial year through special events, historical re-enactments, and community projects organized by the Owen County Bicentennial Committee under the theme "Sweet Owen County - Our Indiana Home"; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Owen County Bicentennial be recognized: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the Bicentennial of Owen County, Indiana.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Owen County Bicentennial Committee

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 16

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 16, sponsored by Representative Goodrich:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the legislative council to assign to an appropriate interim study committee the task of assessing the laws and policies concerning the adjudication and rehabilitation of juvenile offenders.

Whereas, The Indiana Public Defender Council reports that most children under the age of 18 who are arrested or break the law will have their case adjudicated in juvenile court;

Whereas, The Indiana Department of Correction reports that a total of 369 juvenile male offenders and 41 juvenile female offenders were in facilities operated by the Indiana Department of Correction on December 1, 2018; and

Whereas, It is appropriate to assess the adequacy of Indiana's laws and policies concerning the adjudication and rehabilitation of juvenile offenders: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the legislative council is urged to assign to an appropriate study committee the task of assessing the adequacy of Indiana's laws and policies concerning the adjudication and rehabilitation of juvenile offenders.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 31

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 31, sponsored by Representatives DeLaney:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the Indiana State Bar Association Leadership Development Academy.

Whereas, The Indiana State Bar Association Leadership Development Academy (LDA) empowers and develops lawyers to be informed, committed, and involved in order to serve as role models in matters of ethics and professionalism in local and state bar associations, Indiana communities, and organizations;

Whereas, The LDA Class of 2019, the eighth annual class of the program, consists of 25 Indiana lawyers who have been admitted to practice law for 15 years or less;

Whereas, LDA incorporates professional facilitators and prominent leaders from various disciplines to inform participants about leadership principles and techniques, the importance of effective leaders in organizations and governments for the maximization of efficiency and effectiveness, and the challenges and rewards of leadership in action;

Whereas, The LDA class members are selected from around the state and are exposed to topics such as public service, economic development, government, the military, leadership, diversity and inclusion, and other related leadership topics;

Whereas, As LDA class members travel around the state, they actively engage in panel discussions, group activities, and demonstrations with faculty who include Indiana Supreme Court Justices, Court of Appeals and trial court judges, members of the executive and legislative branches of Indiana government, and prominent business and military leaders;

Whereas, One of the principal themes of the LDA is "Leadership begins with the attitude of a servant leader - to serve first, and out of service we are given the honor to lead"; and

Whereas, February 18, 2019, and February 19, 2019, mark the LDA session days when focus is placed on local and state government by providing the class the opportunity to get acquainted with members of the Indiana Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, tour the Indiana Statehouse, the Birch Bayh Federal Building, the United States Courthouse, discuss issues with Indiana legislators, and hear an oral argument: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the importance of the education provided by the Indiana State Bar Association's Leadership Development Academy.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the Indiana State Bar Association Leadership Development Academy and the members of the eighth annual class

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 37

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 37, sponsored by Representatives Lauer, Eberhart, Lucas, Frye, GiaQuinta, Prescott, May, Mahan, Soliday, Leonard, Campbell, Jackson, McNamara, Pryor, Cook, Austin, Stutzman, Abbott D, Cherry, Negele, Bauer, Engleman, Aylesworth, Borders, Lehman, Barrett, Smaltz, Lyness and Behning:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing Cummins, Inc. for 100 years of operation in the State of Indiana.

Whereas, Cummins, Inc. was founded in 1919 in Columbus, Indiana as an unlikely partnership between local banker W.G.

Irwin and his chauffeur and inventor Clessie Cummins;

Whereas, As one of 200 companies with a diesel license, Cummins took the available technology and transformed diesel into a reliable power source for everyday use;

Whereas, Cummins is a global technology leader with clean and reliable diesel, natural gas, hybrid, and electric products in both on-highway and off-highway markets;

Whereas, People's lives are touched by Cummins every day. From transporting children to school, to delivering goods to homes and offices, to keeping power running at hospitals and universities, Cummins' products make life easier and more comfortable;

Whereas, Cummins has operated in the State of Indiana since 1919, with Columbus continuing to serve as the global headquarters for the Fortune 150 company that now operates in 190 countries and employs more than 62,000 people worldwide, with more than 10,000 employees in Indiana alone;

Whereas, During its first 100 years, Cummins prospered by continuing to improve heavy duty powertrains while constantly working to reduce its products environmental impact and emissions;

Whereas, During its next 100 years, Cummins, will succeed by pursuing innovative new technologies such as hybrid, battery electric, and fuel cell technologies;

Whereas, Cummins is committed to not only creating a stronger company, but to ensuring the communities where it operates are stronger and more vibrant because of the Cummins presence; and

Whereas, Cummins is positioned to continue to be the leading provider of a diverse portfolio of clean and reliable power solutions for the next 100 years: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes Cummins, Inc. for 100 years of operation in the State of Indiana.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Tom Linebarger, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Cummins, Inc

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 38

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 38, sponsored by Representatives McNamara, Hostettler, Sullivan and Bacon:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the University of Southern Indiana UNITE CubeSat project team.

Whereas, The University of Southern Indiana Undergraduate Nano Ionospheric Temperature Explorer (UNITE) CubeSat project began in 2016 and is funded by National Aeronautics and Space Administration's (NASA's) Undergraduate Student Instrument Project;

Whereas, The UNITE CubeSat is a small research satellite and was designed, built, integrated, and tested by undergraduate students at the University of Southern Indiana;

Whereas, On December 5, 2018, the UNITE CubeSat was launched on a SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket from Cape Canaveral Air Force Station as part of cargo sent to the International Space Station;

Whereas, After arriving at the International Space Station, the UNITE CubeSat was ejected into orbit on January 31, 2019, where it will orbit the Earth for almost 15 months collecting plasma and temperature data while the CubeSat's orbital decay is carefully tracked; and

Whereas, Under the direction of Dr. Glen Kissel, Associate Professor of Engineering, the UNITE CubeSat is the first complete spacecraft designed, built, and flown by a public institution in the State of Indiana: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate recognizes the UNITE CubeSat project team at the University of Southern Indiana and congratulates the team on their success.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to each member of the UNITE CubeSat project team at the University of Southern Indiana.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.
